

EMMA NELSON

Emma's passionate about the success of Oakwood Tennis Club where she's club and fixtures secretary. She's also recently started volunteering for Kent Tennis. Emma's worked hard to develop Oakwood into a wonderful, welcoming, community hub. She was instrumental in implementing and championing an inclusive tennis session for a group of disadvantaged people from the local community (The Peppercorns). She's introduced charity events and MacMillan coffee mornings, as well as seeking and securing the hosting of County cup events at Oakwood for the past 3 years.

Thank you Emma for Opening up Tennis

ROBERT HUDLESTON

Robert's a regular Kent Tennis Zoom Coffee Morning attendee who volunteers at Headcorn Cricket & Tennis Club, a 3 court club. He's the Chair of the club's Tennis Committee and Welfare Officer.

LISA KING

Lisa's been fixtures secretary at Sundridge Park for over 10 years and efficiently organises all the matches for over 30 teams, in addition to her role as Assistant Secretary of the North Kent LTA Council. At the end of the summer season she coordinates a team celebration evening with special awards for individuals who've made a particular impact on the team, whether their on court performance, being the best captain or best refreshment provider! She's always encouraging; she has endless patience and a great sense of humour. Lisa sits on the Kent Tennis Council and is on the Competitions Committee.

Thank you Lisa for Opening up Tennis

ANDY HANKS

Andy from The Sundridge Park Club is a very active member of the tennis committee, running all the leagues and tournaments, welcoming new members and arranging their introduction to similar standard players. He runs a group of 90 players organising weekly games, and is passionate about team tennis, captaining 3 teams and supporting home and away matches. In addition, he's been instrumental in moving the North Kent leagues online, ensuring accuracy and supporting all the captains through the process.

Thank you Andy for Opening up Tennis

GIANG LE

Giang's a member of Oakwood Tennis Club and recently volunteered to develop the planters at the club. She's also helped Andy Crickett and Gavin Nelson plan and design a new garden and seating area. She's given up her time to undertake a course to make sure she's knows which plants would be best and worked with Andy to design a theme in the Wimbledon colour scheme. It's in planting stages at the moment but by July should be looking fantastic.

Thank you Giang for Opening up Tennis

RAPHAEL URBANI

Raph not only organises and runs all the Bromley Wendover's men's league games, but he also organises all the club tournaments and social events, including an impromptu social tournament/event last year which raised over £1,000 for a local Ukrainian charity.

Thank you Raph for Opening up Tennis

ROB THOMAS

Rob's the Premises director at Shooters Hill Lawn Tennis Club and manages the groundsmen and leads on any projects. Recent projects are the refurbishment of the clubhouse and LED lights on two courts. He's been volunteering at the club for over 8 years. Rob's also a team captain for the club and North Kent League.
